Don Cantrell was the head boys' basketball coach at Eastern Pike high school for ten seasons from 1975 to 1984. During this time, he had an overall record of 189-49 for an incredible .794 winning percentage. His teams captured 7 SOC titles and 5 Tri-County league titles during this time. The Eagles also had some truly remarkable tournament success during Coach Cantrell's tenure. They captured 8 Sectional titles in 10 years, along with three District championships, and a Regional Runner-Up in 1984. Coach Cantrell was named Southeast District coach of the year twice during his career in 1975 and also in 1978 and was also named SOC coach of the year on two occasions.
